

American Institute of Constructors

Constructor Certification Commission Document No. 15

s01 snstrs

Review the Test Specifications for Level I and Level II Examinations to assure that they are relevant and current. The Examination Committee shall recommend revisions to the Test Specifications as needed to the Commission.

In conjunction with the Examination Committee, the Commission sets the dates for the Level I and II Examinations.

psychometrician shall be the contact person designated to review examination statistical issues, resolve multiple correct response issues, and review